Kappa Alpha Psi's Newly Elected Grand Polemarch Appoints Distinguished Members to Lead Seven Provinces (Regions) Across the Country

PHILADELPHIA — Jimmy McMikle, Newly-elected Grand Polemarch [International President] of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc., today announced the appointment of seven new Province Polemarshs [Regional Presidents]: Darren R. Adams (North Central Province); Shannon L. Armstrong, Sr. (Middle Western); C. Jerome Brown (Southwestern); Richard B. Mattox (Eastern); Theodore Sanchious, III (Northeastern); Lascel A. Webley, Jr. (Middle Eastern); and Donald L. Woolridge, Sr. (South Central) — to lead the Fraternity on the regional level.

The new Province Polemarshs begin their duties effective immediately. Province Polemarshs serve as chief administrative officers for each region. They are responsible for managing operations, oversight and programming of the region, and work closely with the Grand Board of Directors to implement the Fraternity's strategic plan as well as the initiatives of the Grand Polemarsh.

“As the first order of business at the helm of this great Fraternity, I am elated to appoint seven gentlemen to continue the growth and expansion of Kappa Alpha Psi®,” said Grand Polemarsh McMikle. “These men have worked tirelessly over the decades to help shape and support Kappa's efforts locally, regionally and internationally, and I look forward to their partnership and contributions. I am grateful for the work of their predecessors. I am also excited to reappoint five Province Polemarshs to continue the great work they began in the last administration.”

Appointed by the Immediate Past Grand Polemarsh, Reuben A. Shelton III, Esq. during the 34th administration, five Province Polemarshs: Marcus D. Bailey (East Central Province); Jason M. Jones, Esq. (Southern); Michael L. Kinloch (Northern); Brian C. Mock (Southeastern); and Timothy C. Woods (Western) — were reappointed and will serve during Kappa Alpha Psi's 35th administration.
